John Thomas was appointed as constable No. 18 in the Shanghai Municipal Police on February 21, 1927, his services with the Council terminating on December 11, 1929, when he was dismissed for gross misconduct. His conduct during his period of service, according to official records, was "indifferent."

From December 1929 until June 30, 1930 Thomas was unemployed, after which he worked on the staff of Mr. B. Lennox-Simpson at Tientsin on the seizure by politico-military force of the Tientsin Customs. He held this position until October 1930, when with the death of Mr. Lennox-Simpson, his organization was disbanded.

Thomas remained unemployed from that time until February 1931 when he obtained a position locally with Messrs. Andersen, Meyer & Co. as a refrigerator salesman on a commission basis. This job Thomas held until June 1931 when he resigned voluntarily, after which he was again out of work until October 1931, when he joined the National Flood Relief Commission and took charge of all commissary work in Kiangse and parts of Anhwei and Hupoh, with headquarters at Kiukiang, Kiangse. He was responsible for the disbursing of funds amounting to Mex.$140,000.00 and grain valued at Mex.$1,500,000.00. He left this billet in July 1932 on the completion of work in the areas stated above. From July 1932 he was again unemployed for a long period and in late December 1932 and early January 1933 he submitted applications for a position as Assistant-Warder on the S.M.C. Gaol Staff. His applications, however, were not approved and the following letter was addressed to Thomas on January 23, 1933, by the Extra Commissioner of Police:-

"With reference to your letter dated January 21, 1933,
"I regret that I am unable to vary the decision already "reached, that there is no suitable vacancy for you in
"any department of this Police Force. "

With reference to the application received from Mark H.
Iochvidoff, this man is one of three brothers who are known to be Soviet sympathizers. His elder brother Israel Haim Iochvidoff first came to the notice of the Shanghai Municipal Police during 1926-7 when he was a frequent visitor to the local Soviet Consulate in order to interview Helamed, Soviet Vice Consul. At this time he was strongly suspected of being engaged in political activities on behalf of the U.S.S.R.

It is further reported that Mark H. Iochvidoff is a relative of A. A. Iochvidoff, proprietor of an establishment known as "Export-Import", located at No. 11 Rue Chu Pao San.
This office deals exclusively in furthering the sale of certain Soviet products on the local market.

Forwarded by

J.B. R. S.

With reference to the attached application of Frederick Charles Whiddett to join S.M.P. (Specials), enquiries show that this individual is an unrecognised British subject, 23 years of age. He was educated in the St. Francis Xavier's College, No.24 Nanzing Road, which he left about five years ago. Upon leaving the school he worked for some time in a printing establishment and for the past three years has been employed as a clerk with the "China Theatres Limited", No.2 Park Road.

His father, a British subject, who died seven years ago, worked for many years as a chief-steward on various steamers of the P. & O. S.N. Co., as well as of the shipping companies represented by Butterfield & Swire, and was later employed as manager of the Grill Cafe, Broadway. He was married to a Japanese woman. For some reason F.C. Whiddett, their son, was not registered with the local British Consulate-General.

F.C. Whiddett resides with his mother at No.84 MacGregor Road. He has a good reputation and nothing detrimental is known by this office against him.

Subject (in full) George K. Fowles alias Gomer Kireaf, applicant to join S.M.P. (Specials).
Made by D.S. Tcheremshansky Forwarded by J. H. S.

With reference to the attached application of George K. Fowles to join S.M.P. (Specials), enquiries show that this individual's correct name is Gomer Kireaf. With permission of his step father, Mr. J. Fowles, British, Collector of the Revenue Department S.M.C., Kireaf prefers to be known under the name of George K. Fowles, although he is registered with the local Chinese Bureau of Public Safety under his proper name.

Gomer Kireaf, Turkish, was born on December 26, 1914 at Peking. His father, who died at Harbin several years ago, was a clerk by profession. In 1927 G. Kireaf arrived at Shanghai from Harbin, together with his mother who, two years later, married Mr. J. Fowles. In Shanghai he attended Public School for Boys for 4 years. For the past one and half years he was employed as an apprentice-mechanic in the workshops of the China General Omnibus Co. Ltd., No.263 Connaught Road.

Kireaf's parents object to his joining S.M.P. (Specials), as he is only 19 years of age, and is physically weak and short-sighted. Kireaf states that the main reason for his application to join Specials was his wish to play in the Police football team.

Kireaf resided with his parents at House 16, Lane 215, Medhurst Road.

Subject: C. L. Bogorodsky, applicant to join S.M.P. (Specials).

Made by D.S. Tcheremshansky Forwarded by

J.B. Ross

With reference to the attached application of C. L. Bogorodsky for enlistment in the S.M.P. (Specials), enquiries elicit the following:-

Constantin Leonidovitch Bogorodsky, Russian, born on 21.5.1917 at Petrograd. His father, L.I. Bogorodsky (File D.6554), who formerly was an official of the Russian Imperial Customs, arrived in Manchuria following the outbreak of the revolution in Russia in 1917. However, in 1923 he returned to the U.S.S.R. In this connection it was rumoured that he was obliged to do so, as he had been connected with a Chinese General who, being supported by the Soviet, started a rebellion in the region of Pogranichnaya Station of the Chinese Eastern Railway in 1923, but was defeated and fled to the U.S.S.R. It is also said that, while in the U.S.S.R., L.I. Bogorodsky was employed in the Vladivostok office of the Finance Department of the Soviet Government. In 1930 he appeared in Shanghai. He stated that he had escaped from the U.S.S.R.

The applicant arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostok in 1926, together with his mother, having left the U.S.S.R. with permission of the Government. He received his education in the St. Joan of Arc's College, No. 18 Route Doumer, and subsequently in the College Municipal Francais and Thomas Hanbury School. He was member of the Cadet Company, S.V.C., of the latter school for one year.

Some time during the latter part of 1934 he received employment as a supervisor of works with the Acme Engineering Co., Ltd., 128 Museum Road. Two months later he left that firm in order to join the Universal Engineering Co., No.209

With reference to the Deputy Commissioner (Divisions) endorsement on the attached report of December 17, I have to state that the applicant is still a minor he having been born on May 21, 1917. Although he has no record in the Municipal Police it would seem advisable to reject his application on the ground that his father, who was formerly an important Soviet agent who had left the U.S.S.R. under suspicious circumstances, would probably encourage him to make use of his position as a "Special" in order to further Soviet activities.

With reference to the attached recruiting form, I have to state that Francis Muthur Mori, a Japanese, residing at No. 18 Yung Sang Lee (映生里), Hai Shang Road (海山路), Chapei, near Hoosung Road, was born on May 18, 1909, in Shanghai and his domicile is No. 17 Higashi Nigiwai-machi, Naka-ku, Osaka, Japan. Sei-ichi Mori is his Japanese name but as a convert to Christianity he has taken the name of Francis Muthur Mori. He received education at the Japanese Public Primary School on North Szechuen Road for 7 years and then he was admitted to the St. Xavier College, Nanjing Road, where he studied over 6 years until 1929. Since September, 1929, he has been in the employ of the Shanghai Water-Works Co., 484 Kiangse Road.

There is nothing in the Municipal Police records to the detriment of this person either criminally or politically. However, his motorcycle license record card shows that he was cautioned on September 22, 1931, and was fined one Yen on November 11, 1931, for breach of Traffic Regulation Art. Five.

Subject S. Zaharoff: applicant for S.M.P. (Specials).

Forwarded by

with reference to the attached application by Mr. S. Zaharoff for the post of constable in the Shanghai Municipal Police (Specials), I have to report that there is nothing to the applicant's detriment in Police records.

Enquiries made reveal that the applicant, Sergey Vasilievitch Zaharoff, was born at Harbin on October 20, 1910. Vasilie Vasilievitch Zaharoff, his father, died in 1924. His mother, who is still living, resides in Harbin.

Zaharoff states that for six years he attended the Commercial School at Harbin and completed his studies on attaining the age of 19 years. Shortly after leaving school he came to Shanghai. Since his arrival here he has had several jobs of a temporary nature. For a little more than a year he was employed by Carl Crow Inc., 81 Jinkee Road, acting as outside-man in charge of a gang of coolies. His services while engaged with this firm were satisfactory. He resigned in order to better himself towards the end of 1933. On July 10, 1934 Zaharoff applied for the position of Police Watchman, but as there were no vacancies at the time he was unsuccessful in securing the appointment.

Shortly after arrival in Shanghai Zaharoff registered with the Russian Emigrants Association. There appears to be no connection between Sergey Vasilievitch Zaharoff and the Serge Alexander Zaharoff mentioned in my previous report as having served a sentence of 50 days imprisonment for larceny.

Zaharoff has been in his present place of employment - Arcwelding and Diecasting Works Ltd., 781 Wuting Road - for the past fourteen months.

With reference to the attached application from Serge Zaharoff for a post as Special Constable in the Shanghai Municipal Police (Specials), I have to report that one Serge Alexander A. Zaharoff, Russian, born at K. flaz on September 24, 1895, was sentenced to 50 days' imprisonment for larceny on 18/10/35.

The age of applicant is not given on the attached application but his photograph shows him to be a young man aged about twenty-one years. As the Serge Zaharoff who was sentenced for larceny is forty years of age, and as the photographs of the two men are entirely dissimilar, they cannot be one and the same person.

Beyond the foregoing there is nothing in Police records regarding Serge Zaharoff.

With reference to the attached application by Mr. George Oswald Davies for a position as constable in the Shanghai Municipal Police (Specials), I have to report that there is nothing to the detriment of the applicant in Police records.

Applicant attended St. Xavier's College, No.281 Nanzing Road, from September, 1921 to February, 1928 and left with a good record. Shortly after leaving school he went to Tientsin and from June 1929 to July 1930 was employed by the Texas Company, Tientsin. While with this company his services were very satisfactory, and it was because of a reduction in staff due to lack of business that he was discharged.

From May 1931 to November 1931 Davies was in the employ of Colgate-Palmolive-Beet Co., 3 Canton Road. He resigned his position with this firm in order to better himself.

Davies left Shanghai for Tientsin towards the end of 1931 and in April 1932 he obtained a position as accountant with Fox Film Federal Inc., U.S.A., Tientsin Branch. He remained there until May 1933 when he resigned. Late in 1934 he returned to Shanghai. Davies has been with the Universal Picture Corporation, 623 Szechuen Road, the firm which now employs him, since March 15, 1935.

The applicant has good reference from each of the firms for which he previously worked.

Leonid Codratievitch TOURICK, Russian, was born on June 8, 1912 at Chita, Transbaikalian province, Siberia. According to his own statement he graduated from a secondary school in Habarovsk in 1929 and subsequently attended a navy school (radio operators' section) at Vladivostok for about one year, after which, in 1931, he fled from the U.S.S.R. to China together with his father and resided in Harbin until his departure for Shanghai some time towards the end of 1932.

In Shanghai he worked casually as a radio mechanic until March, 1934 when he joined the Radio Sales Corporation, 82 Nanking Road. He left this firm owing to a reduction in staff and with a good testimonial and from January, 1936 worked with the General Engineering & Construction Co., 505 Honan Road, for about six months, after which he resigned. Mr. Marvromati, manager of the firm, was confidentially interviewed regarding the applicant's character. He states that he suggested to Tourick to resign because the latter was inclined to drinking. However, he gave him a good testimonial.

Upon leaving the General Engineering & Construction Co., Tourick has been without fixed employment.

He resides at No. 697 Avenue Joffre where he occupies room No. 8.

When registering with the Russian Emigrants' Committee in October, 1932, Tourick mentioned a local resident as a reference. However, the latter states that he hardly has any knowledge of the applicant.

Interviewed in connection with his application, Tourick mentioned the names of another two local Russian residents who, he stated, knew him well. Curiously enough, the two individuals

Subject Application of S.A. MAGNUSSEN, Danish, for enrolment in the Shanghai Municipal Police (Specials).

Made by D.S. Pitts.

Forwarded by J. Coyne D.S.I.

Born in Copenhagen, Denmark, some fifty years ago, Svend Aage MAGNUSSEN is an old China hand, having resided in this country for over thirty-one years, most of which has been spent in Shanghai.

He applied to join the Police Department of the Shanghai Municipal Council in August 1912, and when interviewed by the then Captain-Superintendent of Police, carefully refrained from informing his questioner that he had been previously employed in the Health Department of the Council, a fact which he also concealed when filling-in his application form.

Coupled with this, Magnussen gave the impression that he was more or less of the "rolling stone" type, since he had already left good employment locally in more than one instance. Accordingly he was not recommended for a position in the Police.

In February 1933 Magnussen was the defendant in a civil suit brought before the Danish Consular Court by the Embassy Hotel, whose representative filed a case of debt against him. The case, which was eventually settled out of court, concerned a sum of some $270.00.

Later in 1933, a number of prominent Danish residents formed "Maelkeriet Dana" at 1182 Bubbling Well Road, a concern for the disposal to the public of various Danish dairy products. Magnussen obtained the post of manager and licensee of this organisation. In May 1935 the Public Health Department applied for a summons against Magnussen on the grounds that he on May 10, 1935 had kept for sale margarine;-

(2) contained in a wrapper which did not state
(a) the presence of a preservative and
(b) the country of origin, contrary to Condition 16b of his licence and Condition 23 of his Food-Shop Licence.

However, since as the result of further samples of margarine analysed being found free of any preservative the charge was withdrawn.

Although there is nothing on record to Magnussen's detriment from a criminal, political or moral point of view, he is regarded by responsible members of the local Danish community as a happy-go-lucky type of individual, who is generally in debt and quite occasionally in the hands of foreign and Indian moneylenders.

Subject. Michail Korshoonoff, Eugeny Sitko and Dimitry Kouznetsoff, applicants
to join S.M.P. (Specials).

Made by D.S. Makaroff Forwarded by Shenore R.C.

Michail Alekseyevich KORSHOONOFF, Russian, was born on December 8, 1905 at Merv, Transcaspian Province. He studied in the 1st Primary School in Samara and following the outbreak of the revolution in Russia made his way to Vladivostok, Maritime Province. In 1926 he fled from Vladivostok to Harbin where he subsequently resided with his parents until 1929.

Towards the end of 1929 he came to Shanghai and for the following year worked as a waiter in Jukoff's Restaurant, Avenue Joffre.

From 1930 to 1932 he was employed as a Kennel man at the Canidrome, 439 Avenue du Roi Albert.

In January 1933 he left for Canton, where he joined the French Police in Shameen as a constable, in which capacity he served until November 1935, when he resigned on his own accord.

Shortly afterwards he obtained a position of a radio mechanic in the Radio Department of Messrs. "Farmer & Ferguson Co.", General Merchants, Canton, where he was employed until May 1936, when the above concern went into liquidation.

In June 1936 he returned to Shanghai and in November of the same year obtained employment as a radio mechanic with the American Radio Equipment Co., 55 Yuen Ming Yuen Road, where he is still working.

M. Korshoonoff resides at 95 Joffre Terrace, French Concession.

Eugeny Stanislavovich SITKO, Russian, was born on November 21, 1912 at Tomsk, Siberia.

In 1929 he came to Harbin where he resided with his parents and studied in the Pushkin Elementary School.

In September 1931 he came to Shanghai and for the following eight months was employed as a waiter in the restaurant "Kavkaz", 941 Bubbling Well Road. In November 1932 he secured a position as a clerk in the Goorchenko's sausage Factory, Route Remi, where he worked until May 1933, when he left in order to find a better employment.

For the following six months he was employed as a draughtsman with the "Merritt Ltd.," Engineers & Contractors, 8 Quai de France. He was obliged to leave this employment owing to a general reduction in staff. From July 1934 to March 1935 he served as a private in the Russian Volunteer Company attached to the French Police. He left this service upon the expiration of his agreement. In May 1935 he joined the Columbia Riding School, 470 Great Western Road, where he worked as a riding instructor until June 1936, when he left on his own accord.

In September 1936 he joined the "Far Eastern Ratin Co.," 147 Avenue Edward VII, where he is still working as a salesman.

On April 4, 1936, a private criminal prosecution was brought against him by a Chinese driver of the Johnson Garage for assault, which took place on the Great Western Road, O.O.L. However, it appears that Sitco was acting under provocation. Furthermore, despite several summonses being served on the complainant and the defendant, neither of them appeared in the Court, and finally the case was dropped.

Dimitry Nikolaevitch KOUZNETZOFF, Russian, was born on January 14, 1915 at Samara. In 1920 he, together with his parents, came to Harbin where he subsequently resided for a period of one year.

From 1921 to 1924 he resided in Tsingtao, where his father, Nikolai Kouznetzoff, was employed as a musician in various clubs

Gaetano Russo, Italian subject, was born on January 8, 1906, at Naples. He served in the Italian Navy for 8 years and was Chief Petty Officer and Gunner Sergeant on the Italian gunboat "Libia". He left the service with a good record and from December 3, 1930 to March 31, 1933 was employed as a Sub-Officer in the S.M.C. Fire Brigade. He resigned from this service as he wished to marry and according to the Fire Brigade regulations, an officer can marry only after five years' service.

In 1934-5 he was connected with Pinto's Finance Bank, 46 Range Road, and subsequently with the Pinto Bank, 80 Nanking Road. He was on friendly terms with the proprietor of these banks, a certain Vincenzo Pinto, Italian, a known criminal, and for some time resided together with this individual at No. 216 Range Road. Pinto was prosecuted by the Shanghai Municipal Police in June, 1935, for attempted fraud. Russo's name was mentioned in connection with this case. Although enquiries showed that Russo assisted Pinto in falsifying accounts, there was not sufficient evidence to prove a charge against him (Vide C.909/36, 1341/35 "A" Central, September 16, 1935).

It is known that when a certain V. Tatistscheff was giving evidence against Russo in connection with the case in question, the latter was overheard by F.S. 223 Cook, on escort duty, to say that he would kill Tatistscheff. In this connection it must be noted that Russo has the reputation of a hot tempered man who easily resorts to threats.

Upon the closure of the Pinto Bank, Russo was unemployed for a period. From April, 1936, he has been employed

The licence for this kiosk was issued to Mrs. Margot Hardcastle, British, wife of G.A. Hardcastle, an ex-employee of the S.M.C. Fire Brigade, and Mrs. A. Caccioppoli, Italian, paramour of Pinto mentioned above. It is said that this kiosk was financed by Pinto and that Russo represents the interests of Pinto and Mrs. Caccioppoli. Mrs. Caccioppoli was charged on 31.1.31 with "Aiding and abetting in receiving stolen property" (B/W 71/31), but was acquitted by the Italian Court on 5.2.31. On 11.6.36 she was charged at the same court with fraud and was sentenced to 6 months imprisonment and fined Lire 1,200 (Sentence suspended for 5 years).

It is rumoured that Russo, who is a member of the local Italian Fascist organization, participated in the attack on the Isis Theatre, North Szechuen Road, on 20.2.37 in connection with the show of the Soviet film entitled "Abyssinia".

With the exception of V. L. Ostapenko, P.R. Sokolov, K.M. Steiner, and A. A. Savul nothing is known to the detriment of the candidates mentioned in the attached list.

(1)V.L. Ostapenko was convicted on a charge of assault (Cutting and Wounding) made by the French Police on May 3, 1931. For this offence he was fined $3.00 suspended for 1 year. He has been employed by the Shanghai Power Company, Riverside Station since August 1928. His report card shows a long sick record and he is reported to be a person of uncertain temper, and of aggressive pugilistic temperament. There is no record of any complaints in connection with his work however.

(2)P.R. Sokolov was charged with assault on one P. Sharoff on May 27, 1931, and convicted by the Shanghai Special District Court on June 8, 1931, when he was fined $50.00 or 25 days imprisonment.

This assault was the immediate outcome of certain remarks of an insulting nature which Sharoff is alleged to have made with reference to the wife of Sokolov. Prior to the assault, it was known that Sokoloff was the victim of a sharp business deal engineered by Sharoff involving the sale of "Peter's Beauty Parlour", 49 Nanking Road, when Sharoff is stated to have failed to keep to an agreement not to open a similar business locally under the same name. Sokoloff bears a good reputation among the Russian community in Shanghai, while Sharoff is regarded as a person of doubtful character. The opinion of persons who are acquainted with the incidents mentioned, and the characters of both men, is that Sharoff deserved the beating at the hands of Sokoloff.

(3) and (4) K.M. Steiner and A.A. Savul are both stated to (Specials).

Made by D. S. Tcheremshansky

Forwarded by

With reference to the attached recruiting form of Leo Eustaff, enquiries elicit the following information :-

The correct name of the applicant is Leonid Borisovich Evstafieff. He is a Russian who was born on October 11, 1912 at Hankow. His father who was formerly employed with the Municipal Police of the Russian Concession in Hankow, joined the Russian Army during the Great War and is reported to have been missing since.

L. Evstafieff and his brother Peter Evstafieff, being orphans, are reported to have been brought up by Catholic missionaries and later adopted the Roman Catholic religion. The applicant received his education first in the St. Mary's College in Hankow and subsequently in the St. Xavier's College in Shanghai, after which in 1926, he and his brother were sent to Turin, Italy to continue their studies in a ~~local~~ Ecclesiastical Seminary. The two brothers returned to Shanghai in 1929 as, according to their own statements, they did not wish to become clergymen.

31- Upon his return to Shanghai, L. Evstafieff was for a few weeks employed as an assistant teacher in the St. Xavier's College, after which he worked for about two years with the Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, being attached to the Editorial Office. Subsequently he joined the "Studio d'art", Bubbling Well Road, which firm he left after eight months service. In 1932 he was employed for about five months with the Black and Baltic Seas Insurance Company (a Soviet owned firm), after which he worked for a short period as a salesman with the Cathay Ceramic Works, 24 The Bund. Belge de Chemins de Fer en Chine, 150 Kiukiang Road which is agent for the Ucometal (Union Commercial Belge de Metallurgie) and several other firms.

Evstafieff was a member of the American Company, S.V.C. from 11.12.31 to 21.6.32. When joining the company he falsely stated that he was an American, born in San Francisco. On 13.4.32 he was arrested on a charge of having stolen from the S.V.C. Club one overcoat, value $66.00, property of W.N. Cochran, an employee of Kelly & Walsh Co. For this offence he was sentenced by the Shanghai First Special District Court on 21.4.32 to two months imprisonment. It is of interest to note that upon his arrest he stated that he was employed with Kunst & Albers Co. Subsequent enquiries proved that he had never worked in the firm.

In July 1936 Evstafieff made an unsuccessful application to join the Transport Company S.V.C. It must be noted that in his statement in his enrolment form he mentioned that he was an employee of the China General Omnibus Company, which was incorrect, as he never was connected with that company. Being interviewed in connection with this matter, Evstafieff stated that he had been advised by Captain P. W. Ingmer of the Transport Company to mention the Omnibus Company as his place of employment because it could help him to join the Transport Company in which, as a rule, Russians are not admitted.

Peter Evstafieff, the applicant's brother, first came to notice of the Municipal Police on 24.4.33 when he was sentenced to 6 months imprisonment by the Shanghai Special District Court for misappropriation (sentence suspended for 3 years). On 19.7.34 he was brought before the same court on a charge of

Made by D.S.I. Prokofiev.

Forwarded by C. C. C.

Sergey Alexandrovich KOVALEFF, Russian, was born on July 4, 1908 in Khar Province, Siberia, and is the son of an officer of the Russian Imperial Army who later served as a Colonel in Transbaikalian Province, Siberia. The applicant received his education at a middle school in Chita and in the Slagovesensk Technicum. In 1919-1921 during the civil war in Siberia he served in the ranks of the "White" Army and is reported to have been wounded and shell-shocked. Following the defeat of the "Whites" Kovaleff arrived in Harbin where he subsequently worked as a draughtsman and painter for some time. In 1923 he was employed at the Kailan Sifan Railway for 6 months as a railway engineer. He then returned to Harbin and worked as a painter until February 1926, when he left for Shanghai. Here he obtained employment with L. J. Hudoc, local architect, with whom he worked for one year. At the same time he worked for Brandt & Rogers, 215 Szechuen Road. In 1927 Kovaleff left for Tsinanfu, Shantung, where he was appointed Assistant manager of the Arsenal of Marshal Chang Chung Chang's Army. After several months' service in this capacity he returned to Shanghai and worked as a draughtsman for about one year with S. Kravoss, 354 Avenue Haig and then from 1929 to 1933 with Hazzard & Elliott, 33 Szechuen Road. From March 1, 1934 till April 30 of the same year he was employed as a supervisor with the Public Works Department of the French Municipality which service, it is reported, he was obliged to leave after it had been discovered that he accepted bribes. In 1934-35 he was employed with the Modern Home Construction Supplies, Ltd, 1110 Gordon Road, and in 1935-1936 with Graham & Painter, 668 Szechuen Road. From October, 1936 until the outbreak of the present hostilities in Shanghai he was employed with Palmer & Turner, 17 Canton Road, after which he has been without a regular employment. Mr. J.L. Patterson, Chief Engineer of Palmer & Turner, interviewed by the undersigned, stated that Kovaleff's services had been quite satisfactory and that he had been discharged on account of a reduction in staff.

It is reported that from 1933, owing to an unsuccessful business venture, Kovaleff has been heavily indebted and that in this connection he was in trouble with his creditors on several occasions. He admits that he still has about $1,000 unpaid debts.

On August 23, 1935 he attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself through the chest from a pistol in the Jessfield Park. It is also rumoured that he made another attempt to take his life in 1933 owing to financial difficulties and family trouble.

Kovaleff states that he served in the S.M.P. (Specials) for about two months during the Sino-Japanese hostilities in 1932.

He is registered with the Russian Emigrants Committee and resides at 223/2 Route des Soeurs together with his wife and daughter.

On the whole Kovaleff does not seem to be a suitable person for the service with the S.M.P. (Specials).

Alfred Wilhelm JILLINK, Czechoslovakian of Jewish origin, states that he was born on March 11, 1902 at Iglau, Czechoslovakia, and that he is a chemical engineer by profession. He arrived in Shanghai during the autumn of 1932 coming from Siam via Japan. According to him, he was at that time on a round-the-world tour as a correspondent of several newspapers including the "Leipziger Abendblatt" (Leipzig), "Ost-Oesterreichische Post" (Austria) and "Tunishe Post" (Constantinople).

Shortly after his arrival here he was engaged by the local German newspaper "Deutsche Shanghai Zeitung" as a town reporter, in which capacity he worked for several months. From March, 1933 to the later part of 1934 he was the editor of the "Green Post", a fortnightly magazine in English, French, German and Chinese languages with the editorial office at 424 Sunhill Road. It was reported that the publication was financed by a certain Dr. Chiang Tsin Sung, who resided at the above address and who, in turn, received the money from the "Sun Fo clique". However, the magazine in question did not come to the notice of the Municipal Police in connection with any political propaganda.

After the publication of the "Green Post" had been discontinued, Jellinek worked with the NEUTONIA WORKS, 80 Miaochow Road, for about one year as a salesman. Following the closure of this firm he worked in the same capacity independently for a period. At present he claims to be a partner of the China Universal Engineers, 169 Yuen Ming Yuen Road. Mr. A. Quoika, manager of the said firm, interviewed by the undersigned, stated that Jellinek was only allowed to use the company's office and occasionally also worked for them on a commission basis.

that although Jellinek has been residing in Shanghai for five years it was not until the end of August, 1937 that he came to the consulate for registration. On that occasion he wore the uniform of the S.M. Police (Specials). Producing a certificate of nationality, he applied for a passport. As the consulate had on file a circular issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Czechoslovakia, on 10-7-30 to the effect that A.V. Jellinek was wanted by the judicial authorities to answer certain charges of fraud and forgery of passport, he was told that a passport valid for three months would be granted to him on the condition that he would immediately proceed to Czechoslovakia in order to clear himself of the said charges. Since that time Jellinek has not been seen at the consulate. On the whole he is regarded by the consular staff with suspicion and is not considered by them a suitable candidate for service in the police.

Interviewed by the undersigned Jellinek gave very evasive replies regarding the matter of his registration with the local Czechoslovakian consulate. Inter alia, he ~~xx~~ made a hint that the German elements in Czechoslovakia were not receiving a fair treatment from the government of that country. He also mentioned that he had secured a seven years' agreement with the ranking Government in connection with some work of a military significance and that from November 1, 1937 he would be considered a Chinese citizen. According to him, this was necessary in order to protect him against the possibility of reprisals on the part of the Japanese should he fall into their hands.

Jellinek resides at House 1, Lane 147, Avenue Haig.

While in Shanghai he did not come to the notice of the Municipal Police in connection with any activities of an undesirable character.

With reference to verbal instructions of P.A. to D.C. (Special Branch) re further report regarding A. Pfeifer, I have to state that, according to information confidentially obtained from the local German Consulate-General (Mr. H. Gatzjen, Chief Chancellor, and Mr. von Ladow), Pfeifer for some time was financially embarrassed, but he settled these money affairs and nothing detrimental is known against him. However, further enquiries show that the statement of the officials of German Consulate General was not correct. On August 1, 1936, Pfeifer absconded from a boarding house known as "Bubbling Well Court" situated at No. 178, Lane 591 Bubbling Well Road, owing $136.85 for boarding and lodging. According to the statement of Mrs. Roberts, French, manageress of the above boarding house, a clerk of this establishment visited the German Consulate-General and complained against Pfeifer for non-payment of the bill. As a result of this complaint, Pfeifer promised to settle the account in a few days, but has not been seen since. Evidently, the German Consular officials were under the impression that Pfeifer had settled the matter as the clerk of the boarding house in question did not make any further complaint against Pfeifer.

Vladimir Lvoff, Russian, was born on January 7, 1906 at Moscow. He is reported to have left Russia for China in 1920 and to have subsequently resided in Harbin, where upon completing his education in one of the local schools he worked as a salesman with Shiro Bros., Import & Export Co. Towards the end of 1929 he resigned from this firm and was for a period employed as a clerk with the Harbin branch of the National City Bank of New York. Shortly after he left this position he, together with two others, Choolkoff and Belgunoff, who were also employed at the same bank, was implicated in defrauding the bank by drawing out money on false cheques, for which offence he was subsequently sentenced to 3 months imprisonment.

In August 1930 he came to Shanghai and soon afterwards secured employment with the Shanghai Telephone Co. His services with the company terminated in December 1931 due to his bank affairs in Shanghai reaching the ears of the management.

His next employment was with the Russian newspaper "Slovo", Advertising Department, 238 Avenue du Roi Albert, where he worked until September, 1932 when he left on his own accord.

In 1933-1934 he worked at various places as a tailor and ladies hair-dresser apprentice respectively. In 1935-1936 he conducted the Shanghai-Tsingtao Line, a travel agency located at No 538 Avenue Joffre. This agency worked in conjunction with the "Mardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd." whose four freighters were converted into passenger boats with the general idea of conveying Russian on low tariffs during the summer season. Soon after leaving school he was engaged as a clerk by the Great Northern Telegraph Company, 4 Avenue Edward VII, where he worked from June 20, 1929 to June 12, 1934 when he had to resign owing to reduction of staff and his inability to master the Danish language. Later for about one and half year Larsen was connected with the Roma florist shop, 259 Avenue Haig, owned by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frischen, German. Subsequently, for a period he was unemployed. Since May 1937 he started his own business under the style Tropicana Pet Co., 172/13 Rue Admiral Courbet (breeding gold fish etc.) in partnership with one J.E. Friberg, Swedish. On October 15 of this year Larsen joined the International Guides Bureau, 180 Nanking Road, where he is now employed as a clerk.

Mihail Alexejevich Bentsianoff, Russian, was born on July 25, 1908 at Irkutsk, Siberia. He left Russia for China in 1922 together with his mother in order to join his father, a brandy distiller by occupation, who had arrived in Harbin previously. Applicant was educated in the Commercial and subsequently in the Pushkin Schools in Harbin graduating in 1928. Later for about two years he was unemployed. From 1931 to 1932 he worked as an apprentice in Spirtenko's Vodka Distillery in Harbin, where his father was employed. In 1932 he joined the Olma Chemicals Ltd. In 1933 he was transferred to the Shanghai branch of the firm and since that time has been attached as a chemist to their factory located at 200 Rue Cassini.

Bentsianoff is a member of the Sports Committee of the Russian Club, 1035 Avenue Foch. He is registered with the Council of United Russian Organization in Shanghai (Soro) and resides at No. 25, flat 7, Route Tenant de la Tour.

It is reported that in 1933 in Shanghai Bentsianoff was on friendly terms and resided together with one Alexey Ivanovich Stepanoff, 28, Soviet citizen, a building contractor by occupation. The latter individual has the reputation of a bolshevik sympathizer and is said to have been a member of the Communist Youth Organization in Harbin. However, Bentsianoff is not known to have any interest in politics and his connection with Stepanoff may be accounted for by the fact that they have known each other from childhood and also have common interests as sportsmen and hunters.

In connection with the attached application of J.D.Godkin, this individual is not at present in Shanghai but is expected to return at an early date from Dairen. A visit to 89, Foochow Road, Room 219, the address of the Cathay Trading Company where according to the application Godkin is employed failed to result in the location of any such firm. It is also possibly of some significance that the telephone number 12666 is now non-existent though formerly held in the name of the Cathay Trading Company at the above mentioned address.

If it is thought desirable, further enquiries into the antecedents of Godkin will be made on his return to Shanghai.

It should be noted that there is nothing of detriment to the name of the applicant who is registered with the Russian Emigrants' Committee in the records of either the Shanghai Municipal Police or of the French Police.

C. Crawford, D.I.

Mihail Abramovich Lourie-Ettingoff, Soviet citizen of Jewish origin, was born in 1888 at Novozybkov, Chernigov Province, South Russia, and is the son of former well-to-do merchant who owned sugar and lumber factories in Novozybkov. Upon graduating from a local middle school he continued his education in a German university. During the Great War he joined the Russian Imperial Army as a volunteer and, following the Russian Revolution in 1917, when Jews were admitted in the military officers school, he entered the Peterhof Military Officers School. It is said that in the ranks of the school, he participated in the defence of the Winter Palace in Petrograd against the bolsheviks. In 1918 Lourie fled to Harbin where subsequently he conducted the restaurant "Kishinev" and later a motor car business in partnership with a certain Russian Jew named Terk. Both enterprises were not successful. In 1925 Lourie entered the service of the Harbin Office of the Chinese Eastern Railway, a Soviet enterprise. It is believed that he received this position through the influence of the Soskin family, his relatives, owners of a well known export firm in Harbin, which had business connections with the Chinese Eastern Railway. In July, 1925, Lourie was transferred to the Shanghai agency of the concern. In 1929 he resided at Hankow. In November 1930 he resigned from this position pleading ill health and, it is reported, received a considerable sum from the superannuation fund. He then became a partner of Topas & Co. Ltd., 43 Szechuen Road, a real estate firm. In 1932 he was employed with the "Commercial Brokerage Co.," 19 Yuen Ming Yuen Road. Early in 1933 he acquired an interest in the United Bond Investment Co., but soon afterwards severed his connections with this company. During the same year, in partnership with A.D. Lavrentieff and G.C. Levitin, he established the Universal Technicum Co., with the office at 105 Banking Road and also was partner in the Imperial Hotel, 941 Bubbling Well Road. In 1935 the Universal Technicum Co. was closed owing to depression in business. Lourie then joined as a partner and general manager of the D.D.'s Cafe, owned by one D.D. Dvorjetz. About one year ago he left this enterprise and has since been connected with White, White & Co., 45 Kiukiang Road, as a broker.

Lourie is a member of the Committee of the Macabean Club, and member of the Shanghai Jewish, International Recreation, Sino-Foreign and Bridge Clubs.

In view of his service with the Chinese Eastern Railway in Harbin and Shanghai and his connections with the local Soviet employees, Lourie was strongly suspected of being a Soviet agent. However, no facts have come to light, which could substantiate these suspicions. It is reported that after Lourie had left the Chinese Eastern Railway, he severed his connections with Soviet officials. He has the reputation of a ^{being} well educated, and well mannered person. There are good reasons to believe that he has always been an opportunist rather than a political worker or a bolshevik sympathiser. It is reported that for the last

A.B. ALVAREZ, first came to the notice of the Municipal Police on November 11, 1933, when he entered Flat No.304, Carter Road Police Quarters, and offered a radio aerial for sale. S.I. Harper who was the occupant of the flat at that time asked him to produce his business card which the applicant failed to do. After that he was taken to Sinza Police Station, where he was able to prove that the aerial belonged to his friend and that he was only trying to sell it for him, consequently no charge was preferred against A.B. Alvarez.

On July 22, 1934 a British lady came to the Dixwell Road Police Station and reported that her children aged from 5 to 14 years and their playmates were afraid to go to the Hongkew Park as they had been followed about by a foreigner, believed to be a Portuguese, who carried a raincoat over his arm, leaving his trousers unfastened and exposing his person to the children. On August 26, 1934 the children mentioned above came to Dixwell Road Police Station and stated that at about 6.30 p.m. when they were playing in the park, they saw the same foreigner, sitting and exposing his person to them. They demanded that he proceed to the Hongkew Park gate where S.P.C. 84 met them and escorted all concerned to the Station. At the Station the foreigner gave his name and address as Mr. A.B. Alvarez, Spanish, residing at 14, Dixwell Road. He strongly denied committing these offences, claiming it to be a case of mistaken identity. Then he presented his card, according to which he was formerly employed by China Fresh Egg Co., but admitted having been unemployed for over three years. After verification of his address, he was permitted to leave the Station. The Spanish Acting Consul-General was informed of that case and Alvarez was summoned to the Spanish Consulate, where he again denied committing an offence of that nature and stated that he was a married man and had one child. He also stated that owing to some sickness he was unable to work and that the family was kept entirely by his wife's earnings.

This case was in progress until October, 1934. Finally, upon the Spanish Acting Consul-General, offering to give Alvarez a strong verbal caution, it was decided by the Police not to take any further action in the matter.

The applicant left Vladivostok for Harbin in 1922 together with his parents. He graduated from a normal school in that city, and in 1929 arrived in Shanghai together with his family. Subject..... Hal P. MILLS - Applicant for enrolment in the Shanghai Municipal

Made by..... D. S. Pitts.

Forwarded by.....

Hal Peck MILLS, American, is known as a despicable, cunning, unprincipled and unscrupulous type of person who as nominal editor of the "Hwa Mei Chen Pao" and "Hwa Mei Wan Pao," merely lends his name and nationality for purposes of protection to a Chinese concern in return for a monetary remuneration.

Mills' ostensible profession is that of a theatrical agent and instances have come to light in the past which have indicated without a shadow of doubt that he has been guilty of sharp practices towards certain artists passing through his hands for engagements.

Since he commenced his connection with the newspapers mentioned above Mills has been warned on several occasions for having published articles considered either in poor taste, likely to cause a breach of the peace or definite falsehoods, but although he has promised to be more careful in future, the warnings he has received have most blatantly been disregarded.

Although he is known to have been mixed up in many a shady affair he has always remained on the right side of the law from a criminal point of view. He has, however, been thrice convicted in the United States Court for China for minor breaches of Traffic Regulations.

The applicant is on friendly terms with many members of this force but from what is known of him it is believed that were he able to utilize these acquaintanceships from a business angle, he would not hesitate to do so.

It is worth pointing out that in many articles he has had published in the past he has professed great friendship and admiration for this Police Force and has praised the fine work conducted by certain of its members, yet when requested to tone down certain of his stories, has invariably turned a deaf ear to all reasonable argument. He has an axe to grind - that of catering for those local readers who thrive on sensationalism - and as an exponent of the "yellow" press, has few peers in journalistic circles here.

Accordingly, therefore, Mills definitely does not appear to be a suitable candidate for enrolment as a Special Constable.

Made by D. S. Pitts. Forwarded by

Andrew SHIRAZEE, Persian, has been a resident of Shanghai for many years and is a person of good standing in the local Parsee community. Nothing is known to his detriment from a criminal, moral or political point of view and from enquiries made he would most probably make a suitable recruit for the Municipal Police (Specials). It is to be noted, though, that he is employed with the "Hwa Mei Won Pao," with which Hal P. MILLS is connected, and should his (Shirazee's) application be approved and Mills' rejected, the former might find himself embarrassed from a business point of view, as it is learned that Mills was responsible for the idea of both men offering their services to the community, and with the latter in the position of being nominal head of the newspaper, Shirazee would, of course be influenced by any of his actions.

Subject Joseph Salem DAVID Application to join S.M.P. (Specials).

Made by J. S. Henchman

Forwarded by

J. S. David, applicant for S.M.P. (Specials), is a British subject, born in Bombay on 17.4.1896. He arrived in Shanghai in 1908, remained for two years, returned to India and then, in 1913, went to the U.S.A. where he resided until 1917. During his sojourn in the U.S.A. he was employed by various insurance companies.

In 1917 David returned to Shanghai and has resided in this town since that date. He has been employed successively with Messrs. Harvy Cook & Co., Calder Marshall & Co. and Manufacturers Life Insurance Co., his present employers.

From 1933 until the present time David has been a member of the C.V.C., but during the whole of that period, except for compulsory mobilisation in 1937, only attended four parades and is, therefore, classed as "inefficient."

David's reputation in Shanghai is not of the best, he is addicted to drink and is not considered reliable. During the period of his employment with the firm of Calder Marshall & Co. he was suspected of a series of misappropriations and for this reason was dismissed, clemency on the part of his employers preventing his being prosecuted. His present employers are unaware of his previous delinquences and the above information was given in the strictest confidence.

Though there is nothing in Police records to his detriment, it would not appear that he would make a satisfactory Police Special.

Alexander C. Lacson, who was born in Manila on May 3, 1891, arrived in Shanghai in 1917 and obtained employment in the Traffic Department of the Yee Tsong Tobacco Company. Three years later he joined the staff of the Standard Oil Company but lost his position on the reduction of staff in 1923.

On May 18, 1923, he was engaged by Anderson Meyer & Company Ltd., and posted to their advertising & Printing Department. He was dismissed for corrupt practices on December 19, 1931.

The applicant joined the Shanghai Volunteer Corps in 1927, but resigned during the hostilities in 1932 in sympathy with his nephew Mr. S.L. Baugista, whose discharge from the Corps, he considered unjust. He later rejoined the Corps but was himself dismissed on September 2, 1938 owing to lack of interest in his duties and his repeated failure to attend parades and other functions.

Since it is understood that the foregoing will debar the applicant's appointment, enquiries regarding him have been discontinued.

Forwarded by C. G. G. G. G.

Alfred STEIN, German (former Austrian) of Jewish extraction, was born in Vienna on December 30, 1898.

He first arrived in Shanghai on December 26, 1938 in the s.s. "Jean Laborde," an emigrant endeavouring to escape the harsh regime imposed by Hitler on all Jews after the annexation of Austria by the Reich.

The applicant was formerly an officer in the Austrian Army Reserve and for several years was prominent in Vienna as an expert on matters relating to the cultivation of corn and grain.

He is the son-in-law of Mr. A.R. HERTZKA, local business man who has resided in this city for over twelve years.

STEIN has opened a business as a manufacturer's representative at Room 303, 410 Szechuen Road, financial assistance having been rendered by Mr. HERTZKA. The applicant, who resides with his wife and ten year old son at 1809 Avenue Joffre, appears to be an excellent type for enlistment and may well be in a position to advise in the near future on the background of other emigrants desirous of joining the Specials.

Nothing is known by this office to the applicant's detriment from a criminal, moral or political angle.

SUBJECT: F. J. Yankovsky — Candidate for enlistment in the S. M. Police (Specials).

Faivel Iosifovich YANKOVSKY, Soviet citizen of Jewish origin, was born on July 1, 1919 at Harbin. In 1932 he graduated from a Higher Elementary School in that city, after which he proceeded to Shanghai together with his parents. Here he was employed as an apprentice radio-mechanic with the Radio Sales Corporation, Nanking Road, from 1934 to 1935, after which he worked independently as a radio salesman until September, 1938 when he was engaged by the Radio Corporation of America, 361/3 Avenue Foch, as Sales Manager. Leaving this position of his own account in September, 1939 he was employed as a Wireless Operator with the Eastern Shipping Agency, Ltd, 55 Yuen Ming Yuen Road, in which capacity he worked on board of their motor vessel "Storm Waif" from 13-8-1940 to 31-12-1940, resigning of his own account. He holds good references from his former employers.

He appears to have been without fixed employment until the end of September, 1941 when he opened an enterprise under the style "United Traders" at 149 Szechuen Road, Room 239, of which, he stated, he is the sole proprietor. The United Traders is supposed to engage in export and import business. Yankovsky admitted that so far practically no business has been done, it being necessary to establish the necessary connections with certain firms in the U.S.A. In the meantime he is engaged in commercial activities as a broker and commission agent.

Applicant holds Soviet passport No. 126631 issued on 15-3-1941 by the Soviet Consulate at Tokyo. At pre-Alexey Vassilievich Stepensky (Stepensky), Russian, born on July 8, 1908 at Kerch, South Russia. He is reported to have arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostok in or about 1920. From 1920 to 1924 he attended the St. Francis Xavier's College, after leaving which he is reported to have been employed with the British American Tobacco Company in 1925-1926. In 1927 he joined the Russian Detachment of Marshal Chang Chung Chang's army in Shantung, in which he served until some time in 1928. Returning to Shanghai, he joined the Russian Detachment, S.V.C. on 2-5-28. Leaving this service on 21-7-29 of his own accord he was for the following ten years employed with the British American Tobacco Company (at present known as Lee Tsong Tobacco Co) as a foreman. He left this position on 30-10-40 and is in possession of a good testimonial from that firm. At present he conducts his own business under the style "Alexida Co" (Suit & Overcoat Lengths) at 778 Bubbling Well Road, Flat 54 in partnership, it is reported, with a Jewish refugee from Germany.

He is registered at the Russian Emigrants Committee, Moulmeln Road, and resides at the above address together with his wife, Mrs Ida M. Stepensky, 38.

Since 11-1-36 he has been the holder of S.M.P. licence No. 2652 for carrying firearms.

Stzepensky first applied to join the S.M. Police (Specials) in December, 1940. During the course of a usual interview at the Police Headquarters in connection with his application he frankly admitted that shortly before, being under the influence of drink in a cafe situated in the French Concession, he misbehaved himself with his pistol with the result that the Police was called to attend the case. He asked if this incident was likely to ruin his chance of joining the S.M.P. (Specials) and, on being told that it was, decided to withdraw his application.

Apparently no Police action was taken in connection with the incident referred to by Mr. Stzepensky, as in that case the S.M.P. Arms Licencing Section would have been notified.

SUBJECT: Martin KURNIK - Applicant for Enrolment in the S. M. "Special Police".

With reference to the attached application to join the S. M. "Special Police", submitted by Mr. Martin Kurnik, the following particulars have been obtained:-

Mr. Martin KURNIK, German Jewish refugee, single, born in Briesen, Germany, 42 years ago, arrived in Shanghai on April 7, 1940. He has come to the notice of the Police in connection with a religious lecture he proposed to read in May 1940 at the International Restaurant, 81 Chusan Road, which was not permitted as the Police thought it inadvisable to allow public meetings in licensed premises. Mr. Kurnik is well-known to local refugee circles for his religious fervour.

There seems to be no doubt regarding Mr. Martin Kurnik's integrity of character, it is, however, thought that he is at present neither physically nor mentally fit to become a member of the S. M. Police. The strain experienced in the past by a great number of local refugee residents has left a deep mark on the body and mind of Mr. Martin Kurnik. He has no fixed occupation and is supported by his brother, who is the owner of a foreign lodging house at 302/21 Ward Road.

Mr. Martin Kurnik was interviewed by this section and it was noticed that he is under the impression that the "Special" Police is a remunerated occupation, and was very disappointed to hear that the work done by this body is entirely voluntary. He was, therefore, advised to make an additional application should he still desire to join the S. M. P. (Specials).

SUBJECT: Alexander WEINBERG - Applicant for Enrolment in the Shanghai Municipal Police (Specials).

Alexander WEINBERG, German Jewish refugee, in possession of a German "J" passport No. 22413, was born in Vienna on September 8, 1886, and arrived in Shanghai on March 20, 1939 aboard the s.s. "Victoria".

The applicant is married, his wife, however, remained in Germany. He resides at Lane 725, House 49, Tongshan Road.

Following his arrival in Shanghai, Mr. A.
Weinberg secured employment with the Committee for the Assistance of European Jewish Refugees in Shanghai, as manager of the pharmacy at 138 Ward Road (Refugee Camp).
He still holds this position.

Although Mr. Weinberg has a certain knowledge of the English language, it is thought that it is not sufficient to pass the prescribed training course for recruits, and it is, therefore, respectfully suggested that Mr. A. Weinberg be told to re-apply at some future date, when his English has improved.

There is nothing to the detriment of the applicant in S.M. Police records.
